

Time	Speaker(s)	Activity
8:30 – 9:00		Registration
9:00 – 9:30	Dana Suskind and John List (TMW Center for Early Learning + Public Health)	Opening Remarks
9:30 – 10:45	Diane Alexander (Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago) Donna Cohen (Center for Study of Social Policy) Jocelyn Guyer (Manatt Health)	Working Title – Understanding the U.S. Healthcare System: Incentives, motivations and opportunities Key objectives – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Foundations of healthcare sector ○ Policy perspective - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ What drives the system ○ Supply and demand ○ Incentives ○ Opportunities and Barriers
10:45 – 11:15		Break
11:15 – 12:30	Rahil Briggs (HealthySteps) Allison Metz (National Implementation Research Network)	Working Title – Principles of Implementation Science: HealthySteps as a model and case study Key Objectives – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ The HealthySteps model, science, and impact ○ Implementation Science Principles ○ Lessons learned from scaling up of HealthySteps
12:30 – 1:30		Lunch
1:30 – 3:30	Amanda Feinstein (Brilliant Baby) Perri Klass (Reach out and Read) Dayna Long (UCSF Benioff Children’s Hospital Oakland) Alan Mendelsohn (Video Interaction Project) Marc Hernandez (NORC) (Moderator)	Working Title – What we can learn from current approaches that leverage the healthcare system to improve child outcomes Key Objectives – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ The science behind the approaches ○ Implementation strategy ○ Impact
3:30 – 4:00		Break
4:00 – 5:00	James Heckman (University of Chicago, Economics) Questions moderated by John List	Working title – Impacts of Early Childhood on Health and Life Outcomes
5:30 – 6:30	Reception	